FAVORS STATE COMMISSION

SECRETARY W. P. RIGGS APPEARS BEFORE MARYLAND LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE,

Hearing Is Given to Representatives of Maryland Jockey Club on Hall Bill, Patterned After Hughes Legislation in New York State.

Hughes Legislation in New York State.

Annapolis, Md., March 13.—That a state-wide racing commission should be created for the purpose of controlling horse racing in Maryland was the opinion expressed by William P. Riggs, secretary of the Maryland Jockey Club, at a hearing before the House Judiciary Committee on the Hall anti-betting bill. The hearing had been arranged to accommodate the opponents of the bill and those who came were representatives of Piniteo. of the Timonium Fair and of the Hagerstown Fair. No representative of the Laurel or the Havre de Grace track was seen or heard from.

The chief plea for the continuance of the life of the Pinilico track was made by Stuart S. Janney, counsel for the Maryland Jockey Club. Mr. Janney read a long paper giving his story of horse racing, the invention of the book making and pool-selling systems, and pleaded that racing was necessary to improve the breed of horses and that the races could not go on without loss unless betting was permitted. In the course of his statement Mr. Janney said that the coneern had last year speat $75,000 more than it would have taken in had there been no betting, and that with the part-mutuel system the club had not only made the $75,000, but $17,000 besides.

He at agreed for state regulation and the limiting of the Charles, saying that the surplus should go to the State for public and the surplus should go to the State for public and the state commission could regulate this.

William Purnell Hail of the committee asked many questions to bring out some of the facts concerning the management and ownership of the Pinilico track and the profits it has made in the last few years. Mr. Janney insisted that those in terested in the track were willing to take 6 per cent. on their investment and let the balance go to the State and the profits it has made in the last few years. Mr. Janney insisted that those in terested in the track were willing to take 6 per cent. On their investment and let the balance go to the State bard indirectly by a sub

"If this bill (the Hail Bill) merely sought to curtail a pleasure we have enjoyed, and if it could be shown that our pleasure was purchased, or must, if permitted, be purchased at the cost of our must, if permitted, be purchased at the cost of our moral degradation or that of our fellow-citizens, we would not be here today. The Maryland Jockey Club is composed of men to whom the good opinion of the people of Maryland is more vitally important, in both their social and business lives, than any possible pleasure or profit racing or betting could ever bestow upon them.
"No legislation is necessary to terminate the career of the Maryland Jockey Club. Should it at any time, by any act, forfeit the good will of those who make public opinion in Maryland, its members would fall away from it like the birds of autumn. They could not afford to do otherwise. We are here today because we and our fathers before us, since 1836, have enjoyed the support of public opinion in what we have done to improve the breed of horses in this country. We are not here to defend the unrestricted taxation of betting for profit of individuals.

DISQUALIFICATION AT PALMETTO PARK

Stewards Set Jesse Jr. Back After He Finishes First in Juvenile Race at Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., March 13.—The disqualitication of Jesse, Jr., which finished first in the juvenile dash at Palmetto Park this afternoon, was made necessary by the foul tactics resorted to by jockey Teahan, who allowed his mount to cross Alledo in the stretch racing and interfere with her to such an extent as to encompass her defeat. The displacing of the Hedrick colt gave the purse to Alledo and moved Tetan, a first time starter, into second place, with Jim Savage third. Alledo was a smartly supported favorite and the stewards' action in awarding the purse to her met with general favor. The disqualification was the outstanding incident attending the sport this afternoon. Improvement in weather conditions enabled the fair sex to take advantage of ladies' day and witness the racing as guests of the association in large numbers. Track conditions were still bad and the card was ordinary. The races were well contested in most instances and as all the winners came in for a good share of support, most of the layers were hard hit.

Tyro and Brush into second place in their respective races.

Jockey J. McTaggart will finish up his engagement here tomorrow, when he will leave for his home in Brooklyn. McTaggart will probably rest until the opening of the meeting at Hayre de Grace.

W. Woodard received a letter from J. Gaillagher this morning stating that the horses at Lexington were forward in training and that they were the best lot that has whatered at the Kentucky Association track in some years.

J. W. Foreman sold the two-year-old Ermagarde to J. McCarthy this morning.

D. Ford received word from E. Cautino that be would ship the three-year-old Aguila from Porto Rico to Norfolk next week. Aguila, a brother in Gardenia, won the Washington Handicap, at one mise and an eighth, in Porto Rico recently, beating Tick Tack and Old Honesty. The winner carried 115 pounds, Tick Tack 100, and Old Honesty 95.

SELLING PLATERS MONOPOLIZE JUAREZ CARD.

Reyal Dolly and Ask Ma Fight It Out to a Neck Finish in Feature Race.

El Paso, Tex., March 13,—Selling platers held full sway at the Juarez track this afternoon and provided interesting sport, since the various fields were well balanced. Weather and track conditions left nothing to be desired in either of these par-ticulars

Josefina Zarate, from the Newman stable, won the two-year-old race off by herself. She was a strong favorite. The second race resulted in a nose victory for Gomul, a long shot, over Lady Rillie, one of the choices. The third race went to Thistle Belle, the heavily-backed first choice. She won in a drive with Ethelda and Sidney Peters.

The fourth race was the most pretentious of the day from the standpoint of quality. Royal Dolly and Ask Ma figured in a stirring finish, the former winning by a neck. Both had been well backed, when Lemon Joe got up to beat Dalston a head, with Pahlachapi, the favorite, third. The improving Anna Reed, with liberal odds quoted against her, carried the colors of Kay Spence to victory in the closing dash in a hard drive with the favorite, Polls.

Jockey W. W. Taylor, for disbeying starter Casolls.

Jockey W. W. Taylor, for disbeying starter Casdy in the third race, was suspended for five days. Trainer Mose Goldblatt has purchased Florin from . Tullett at an advance of $500 for Jefferson Livegston.

Tullett claimed her when she last raced.

WANTS CHANCE AT LEXINGTON RECORD.

Lexington, Ky.. March 13.—Secretary G. D. Wilson of the Kentucky Association today received a letter from Jefferson Livingston, dated at Chicago, advising him that Iron Mask will be shipped to Lexington for the spring meeting and requesting that he be permitted to run against the track record of 1:12 for three-quarters of a mile early in the meeting. Mr. Livingston says that he will ship his string from Juarez in a few days. If he cannot get good engagements in Kentucky for Iron Mask he will send him and some of his other horses to Belmont Park.

Requests were received from R. F. Carman and W. M. Carter, trainer for Thomas Fortune Ryan, for stable room. The former asked for twenty five stalls and the latter for eighteen.

John Miller will leave here tomorrow for New York with eight thoroughbreds. Four are recent purchases of C. Herman Steinbeck from John E. Madden (Hypatia and three two-year-olds) to be trained by L. Martine. Two are Kenneth Alexander's mares, Starry Night and Christmas Star, the former to be mated with Peter Pan and the latter with Broomstick at Harry Payne Whitney's farm in New Jersey, and the other two are two-year-olds going to trainer Kimball Patterson at Sheepshead Bay.

Jack Adkins said today that it is Adelaide T. and not Buckhorn that he is doubtful about training. "There isn't a pimple on Buckhorn." said he. "His legs are as clean as the day he was foaled, and he is as sound as a new bell of brass. Some of the handicappers tried to break him down with weight last year, but they did not succeed in doing so and the horse is in fine shape after his winter's rest to go into training."

T. C. McDowell today sold Florist to Will Perkins. He also sold Grover Hughes a two-year-old by Canopus.

EXPECT CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.

Ottawa, Ont., March 13.—It is now up to the directors of the Montreal Jockey Club to say whether or not dates for the fall race meet at Connaught Park shall be changed. They were originally scheduled for August 26 to September 2, but the new club desires to open on August 29 and close on September 5. They appealed to the Canadian Racing Associations, but secretary Fraser has anounced that the older tracks must get the preference and that the dates cannot be changed unless the Montreal Jockey Club consents and delays its opening until after the close at Connaught Park, or agrees to a clash on the closing day at Connaught Park and opening day at Blue Bonnets. Racing of the Kenteky Association, some constitution of the Kenteky Association, provided that the dates cannot be changed unless the Montreal Jockey Club will agree to the change. He says that secretary Northey was favorable and that several of the Montreal directors promised

Fred Carling that they would not object. Meanwhile the advertising and other literature of the Connaught Park Club is being withheld, pending word from Montreal.

Excellent Racing at Maryland Course.

New York, March 13.—Secretary Fred Rehberger of the Harford Agriculture and Breders' Association announces that the various stakes to be decided at the coming Havre de Grace meeting have filled exceedingly well. The work of building a new grandstand, to replace that destroyed by fire last fall, is being rushed forward and it is promised that all will be ready for the opening April 18. The new structure is being built of steel and concrete and will be much more commodious than was the old stand.

Among the owners who have made nominations for the Havre de Grace stakes are August Belmont, W. N. Adrians, W. D. Althonse, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, Archibald Barklie, N. K. Beal, R. T. PLANS FOR PIPING ROCK RACES.

New York, Margh 13.—Entries for the Piping Rock Subscription Serial Handicap will close to morrow. Frank J. Bryan reports that already an excellent series of races are assured. These races are in a measure a continuation of the private sweepstakes inaugurated at Piping Rock last year. The subscription two-year-olds of last senson are the eligibles for the serial handicaps. The distances of these serial handicaps have not yet been definitely fixed, but they will vary all the way from three-quarters of a mile to a mile and a half. Such a chance and the further fact that they are to be under handicap conditions has made them popular with the subscribers.

It is proposed to have ten or twelve races in the series and the first one will be a part of the Rockaway Hunt Club program May 2. Other amateur meetings that will have the races are those at Piping Rock, Brookline, Belmont Park Terminal and possibly another, while some of the more important courses will card other events in the series.

The series have been prepared with a flat entrance of $200, which makes a horse eligible for each race in the series without further payment of any sort.

SARATOGANS RAISE RACE FUND.

New York, March 13.—Saratoga is now assured of a first-class season of sport for the month of August. When the dates were awarded the Saratoga Association it was intimated that unless the villagers came to the front with a substantial appreciation of the entertainment to be offered the meeting might be curtailed. Last year the subscriptions to the racing fund were far below what was expected and a plea was made for more money. Assistant Secretary A. McL. Earlocher, who has been in Saratoga for two days setting forth what was expected from the citizens, has been successful in his mission. Last night it was announced that the Saratogans had subscribed practically $10,000 to the race fund. Among the subscribers to the fund are Chauncey Oleott, with a subscribtion of $500, and the Grand Union Hotel, with $1,000 as its donation.
